Privacy Statement

Ipswich City Council is collecting your personal information so that we can assess your nomination for an Ipswich Sports Award. We will not disclose your personal information outside of Council unless we are required by law or you have given your consent. Your personal information may be recorded in meeting agendas and formal minutes which are accessible to the public. Further, your personal information, such as your name, may be discussed at the meetings of Council and its committees which are open to the public. In addition to the above, your information may also be used to promote the Ipswich Sports Award and may be disclosed to the Queensland Times for this purpose. By completing and submitting this form and returning it to Council, we will consider that you have given us your consent to manage your personal information in the manner described in Council's Privacy Statement, Personal Information Digest and this collection notice.

Terms and Conditions

- Information (including photos) provided as part of the nomination process will be used for the purpose of conducting the Awards and promoting the City of Ipswich services to the community. The photo and name use can include, but is not limited to, social media, website, Council publications and newspapers. Please ensure permission to use images and details of the nominees have been gained.
- By submitting all documentation and photos you are acknowledging that Ipswich City Council may use them in the public domain.
- Decisions regarding winners are final and no correspondence will be entered into.

- In the event that there are no suitable nominations received in any category, the panel reserves the right to withdraw that category for the relevant year.
